

Sotheby's Sixties-Inspired Afternoon Tea

Head to Sotheby's for a Sixties-inspired afternoon tea

BY HARPER'S BAZAAR UK / AUG 27, 2013

As the summer draws to a close, cheer yourself up with a trip to Sotheby's for a swinging Sixties afternoon tea. Sotheby's exhibition 'The New Situation: Art and London in the Sixties' recreates the excitement of the Sixties London art scene featuring works by important British artists from David Hockney to Bridget Riley. To celebrate, the Sotheby's cafe will be serving a Sixties-themed afternoon tea, weekdays from 3pm 4-11th September. After a wander round the exhibition, try a delicious monochrome Battenberg or a gingerbread vinyl. So sling on your shift dress and head straight to Sotheby's this September.

Afternoon tea at Sotheby's Cafe, £18 / £24 (with champagne) Booking recommended : 0207 2935077
